FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Many of you may have noticed that the organ was not used this past Sunday. This was due to the fact there was a problem with the blower. I am happy to say that it was a minor problem and it was quickly remedied. I am also very excited to say that we are now able to move forward with our restoration and fixing of the organ. We have been able to raise enough money and pledges through the generosity of our parishioners to get the project started. We are still looking into grants that will continue to cover the cost of repairs as well as the cost of any unexpected expenditures. For all those who made a pledge or a donation, I would like to thank you for your support.

With Christmas in July well under way, I am asking that everyone consider helping out this year. It is always very easy to give during the holidays because everyone is in such a giving mood. It is during the off season, like during the summer, that most charities are in real need. It is this time of the year that everyone is busy doing fun, summer stuff that people forget and do not really consider the needs of others. Having worked at Malachi House during a summer while in the seminary, I can tell you that supplies can get really low for many charities.

If you do have the means to help out one or more of these different organizations, please consider making a donation. All of them do extremely wonderful things for the poor and needy. There are no boxes this year in the sanctuary, but the names of the charities are pinned to the carpeting where the boxes used to be. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

If anyone is interested in getting more involved in the life of the parish, the Bereavement Ministry is looking for a few compassionate people who are able to help grieving families plan the funeral, make visits to funeral homes during the calling hours and greet people at the doors of the church before the funeral mass. This is a very rewarding ministry. If anyone would like to join the ministry or may have some questions, please feel free to call the rectory during business hours. Thank you.

Peace and Goodness,
Fr. Bill

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. James is the brother of John the Evangelist. The two men were called by Jesus as they worked with their father in a fishing boat on the Sea of Galilee.

James was one of the favored three who witnessed the Transfiguration, the raising to life of Jairus' daughter and the agony in Gethsemani.

There are two incidents in the Gospels that describe the temperament of these brothers. St. Matthew tells that their mother came-Mark says it was the brothers themselves-to ask that they have the seats of honor in the kingdom. "Jesus said in reply, 'You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?' They said to him, 'We can'" (Matthew 20:22). Jesus then told them they would indeed drink the cup and share his baptism of pain and death, but that sitting at his right hand or left was not his to give - it "is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father" (Matthew 20:23b). It remained to be seen how long it would take to realize the implications of their confident "We can!"

James was the first of the apostles to be martyred. "About that time King Herod laid hands upon some members of the church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also" (Acts 12:1-3a).

This saint James is sometimes called James the Greater, so as not to be confused with James the Lesser. His feast day is July 25th. He is the patron saint of Chile, laborers, Nicaragua, rheumatism and Spain.

PASTORAL MINISTRY

This year our Monday evening Bible Faith sharing group finished the book, Giving to God by Dr. David Jeremiah. Even though Sr. Ignatius did not read the book, we both agree that God rejoices when we give our time, our treasure and our service to His people. Our acts of generosity move His heart to respond by pouring out His grace. Our generosity is a response of appreciation for the good He has done for us. He has blessed us and we show our gratitude by sharing it with others.
