FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

The Lord be with you. Having gone over how the Church spread to Central and South America, we should look at how she developed in our own country. How did the Catholic Church come to the United States? Moreover, how did the Church organize itself in the early days of our country? Let's find out.

As most Catholics know, Maryland was founded to be a Catholic colony. In 1634 about 150 Catholics and Protestants braved the Atlantic to found St. Mary's City. Guaranteed religious protection by the Act of Toleration in 1649, Catholics enjoyed their lives with dignity in Maryland for a while. Unfortunately, in 1689 the English Crown revoked the colony's charter and made the Church of England the official religion of the colony. Catholics, and non-Anglicans, were barred from office and often had to pay double portions of taxes.

In nearby Pennsylvania many Catholics found the Quakers' religious toleration a true Godsend and began settling there. On the eve of the Revolutionary War, however, Catholics only amounted to 35,000 out of a population of 2.5 million, or barely over 1 percent of the Thirteen Colonies. That war changed Catholics' fortunes dramatically. Whereas before the war the United States had no bishops but were led by a Papal representative stationed in London, in 1789 Bishop John Carroll became the first bishop with his diocese of Baltimore. Bishop Carroll's brother Charles had signed the Declaration of Independence representing well the support that Catholics gave our country's move to independence. Nevertheless, the Church was tiny at the close of the 18th century, with one bishop, about 30 priests, and maybe 40,000 Catholics.

Over the next few decades the Church began to expand from immigration and institutional growth. The Louisiana Purchase in 1804 opened up new lands for settlement as Napoleon's Wars in Europe displaced populations. By 1810 the United States had its own seminary, Elizabeth Ann Seton had started the first American Catholic school system, and Baltimore had been raised to an Archdiocese along with New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Bardstown in Kentucky. By our country's 50th birthday, however, the Catholic population had not kept pace with overall growth: 150,000 Catholics out of a population of 12 million is less than 1 percent.

The Church's real growth would come in the next four decades as immigrants from Germany and Ireland came. By the eve of the Civil War, Catholics would number 3 million out of a prewar population of 30 million: 10 percent! Catholicism went from being a tiny minority to the largest single denomination in those pivotal years with a corresponding growth of Catholic institutions. My own ancestors from Prussia came over during this time and settled in Parma, Ohio, where they continued speaking German.

As one might expect, the influx of non-English speakers upset many Americans. The Nativist movement and its No Nothing Party eventually died off after a few decades, but the opposition that Catholics and Protestants faced at this time remind us that assimilation is rarely easy or straightforward. May we pray that whenever these tensions occur - as they do today - that all sides remember that we are God's children first.

In His Sacred Heart,

Fr. John

CATHOLIC CHARITIES ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2026 Catholic Charities Appeal is underway with an in-pew commitment process taking place this weekend. This is not a special collection; rather, the Catholic Charities Appeal represents the chance for all Catholics to make a significant pledge, payable in installments, to Catholic Charities, Diocese of Cleveland in order to supports its mission of a society that stands united in its support of the "least among us." Many parishioners have received a letter from Bishop Malesic requesting their support. If you have not received this letter, please respond to the in-pew commitment process today! If you have received the mailing, please respond to it.

Yours are the hands... Your support of the 2026 Catholic Charities Appeal helps us to carry out the mission that Jesus entrusted to us: 'I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Please consider a generous gift that will change the lives of those who are served each year in Northeast Ohio. Please pray for the success of the Appeal, which provides for essential programs and services in need throughout all eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 15, 2026

Notes From our Music Ministry –

by Frank J. Kozuch; Music Director

Now that we have celebrated our Savior's birth and put all the decorations away, it is time to look ahead and prepare for the upcoming season of Lent. As one of the most sacred times of the liturgical year, we focus our hearts on prayer, fasting and almsgiving to God. It is always my intention to create a more prayerful and reflective environment with music that especially pertains to spiritual renewal. We typically eliminate preludes and reflection hymns however sometimes a very quiet instrumental is a prayerful enhancement. Please note we will be singing the Mass of Renewal settings in our BB Missal (#858, #860, #862 & #863) during this season.

ST. THOMAS MORE SCHOOL

In the Early Childhood Education program, the children are working on identifying and extending patterns. This activity aligns with the Ohio Early Learning and Development Standards for Mathematics, which focuses on recognizing, describing, and creating patterns.

The children were given a worksheet featuring hearts, with a pattern already started. Using their fine motor skills, they completed each pattern by coloring the hearts the correct colors. The patterns included AB, AABAA, ABBA, and ABC. The children did an awesome job!

Saint Ignatius High School honors the following alumni who made honors for the first semester - Richard Widdowson.

Saint Joseph Academy honors the following alumni who made honors for the first semester - Jocelynn Ashwood, Gabriella Cisneros, Jaime Stutzman, and Lucy Thomas.

PALMS

We will NOT be collecting palms this year. To dispose of your palms at home, you may bury them or burn them and spread the ashes outside.

Ash Wednesday, February 18th, and Good Friday, April 3rd, are days of abstinence from meat (for those who have reached their fourteenth birthday) and also days of fast. The day of fast is limited to one full meal and two small meals (for those between the ages of 18 and 59). All Fridays of the season of Lent are days of abstinence from meat. Fast and abstinence on the days prescribed should be considered a minimum response to the Lord's call to penance and conversion. Prayer opportunities include Children's Stations of the Cross at 2pm on Wednesdays and Stations of the Cross at 6pm on the following Fridays: February 20th, February 27th, March 6th, March 13th, March 20th and March 27th. An almsgiving opportunity is to participate in Operation Rice Bowl.

We'll meet, pray for and learn from families in Ghana, Guatemala and Timor-Leste who are rising above the challenges of hunger and malnutrition. Pick up your rice bowl from any church entrance. Then, visit crsricebowl.org/join to share your Lenten prayer intentions.

BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION

Next week, our parish will take up the 142nd annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE COLLECTION

Next week, we will take up the collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that are still struggling to recover from former communist rules. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection next week. You can find more information at www.usccb.org/ccee. iGiveCatholic also accepts funds for this collection if you prefer to donate online.
