FROM THE CORNER OFFICE...

“Go in Peace, keep warm, and eat well.” (Or...) How about, “Have a nice week, take care, and be good.” Do any of these words have meaning or support behind them? Any sustenance for those we say these words to?

Yes, we know that words have meanings and that should be helpful – BUT, do our words that we say to others have the actions to support the words? The prophet Isaiah writes of God being our help and strength to deal with the worldly challenges we face each day. This passage helps us to see – as Jesus shares with his disciples and traveling companions – about the suffering of the Son of Man. Jesus even tells all of us that it will not be easy and that there will be challenges to following Christ. The reward is salvation in God’s Glory! This is why we return to James’ letter with questions concerning our words... When we say that we are Christians following Christ as Catholics, do our words actually have support and sustenance behind them? Do we actually live out our faith in action or do we just say the words with little or no meaning? This week let’s all preach the Gospel with actions... Remember St. Francis saying, “Preach the Gospel at all times. When necessary, use words.” (!)

Fr. Mike

75th Anniversary thoughts:

The weeks are continuing and the amazement never slows down. This past holiday weekend included very nice donations from (Mr. & Mrs. Anonymous...) donors in the form of an extra-large grill for events and financial support to the parish. All of which are greatly appreciated and will be used to bring us all together.

The mission of the 75th Anniversary Committee volunteers is to help celebrate and bring together all of us as a community of faith. The readings today have us asking how our faith is lived out in actions. Look around this week, plan for the next parish event (s), and see if you’ll agree with me, that at St. Thomas More we are all called to live out our faith in action. Let us all continue to DO this Faith in Action.

School started here at St. Thomas More this past week. We would like to thank all of the teachers who work so hard to help our students persevere. “A good teacher can inspire hope, ignite the imagination, and instill a love of learning” (Brad Henry). May God bless you!

TRAVELING MADONNA

This week the statue is at the home of:

Marlene Mohnickey.

Please continue to pray for our host families as they share their home with our Traveling Madonna. Remember to send in any pictures that you take to the rectory. Please call the rectory to sign-up to host the Traveling Madonna in 2021. There are still a few weeks available this November and December to host the Madonna.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Hello parishioners of St. Thomas More!
I hope you all had a great summer, and as the start of the new liturgical year approaches (Advent is not that far away!), I just wanted to update you on some things that are coming up.

MISSALS: With the beginning of the new year also comes new missals. I want to thank everyone that purchased a missal last year. With the uncertainty of the pandemic, it was impractical to put them in the pews. That being said, starting in late November, we will be putting missals in the church for use during the Mass. However, if you would still like to purchase one for personal use, more information will be coming soon about that. Thank you again for your understanding over the past year.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS: I will now be taking over scheduling Eucharistic Ministers. As records of EM's have changed hands over the past couple of weeks, please be patient as I put everything together. If you are trained as a Eucharistic Minister and want to be placed back onto the schedule but haven't been yet, please contact me (at musicministry@stmparish.net) and let me know: Your name, basic contact information, and which Mass you attend. Current EM's: expect an email from me soon about scheduling for the rest of the year.

Kind regards,
Alex Ulle
Music Director

BLESSING FOR THE FALLEN OF 9-11

God of mercy, in your word of Scripture, you instruct us to "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Give us today the courage to assist those around us who may need our assistance. Give us patience when we become impatient.

Remind us to pray for all those who perished on United Airlines 93, American Airlines 11, United Airlines 175, American Airlines 77, and those in the Twin Towers and Pentagon.

Give us a heart thankful for those who gave their lives as first responders, as did the men and women who ran into danger to be of aid.

We ask all this in the name of the One who first responded to our need for a savior, Jesus the Christ.
Amen. ©LPi

GRANDPARENTS DAY BLESSING

God of our ancestors, we thank you for our children and our children's children. They are reminders from you about how precious life can be. We humbly ask for wisdom and patience as we take pride and wonder in our grandchildren. Those of us who now pray to you also seek your blessing upon these men and women who are our grandparents or who act in place of grandparents. Bless all the children and their parents and grandparents with your abundant grace. We ask all this through the intercession of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, patron saints of grandparents, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen. ©LPi
